

1 CENT

Housed in a former church, the Brewster General Store has a little bit of everything, from fudge and souvenirs to penny candy! While the sweets may cost a few cents more nowadays, this fun shop is worth the visit.

GAME # 1

The Brewster Whitecaps of the Cape League take the field opening day—Tuesday, June 9—with a new coach, Jamie Shevchik (head coach at Keystone College). Watch Whitecaps games at Stony Brook Field.

1-1/4 LB

A 1-1/4-pound lobster is perfect for a succulent meal. Crack open a traditional boiled lobster at Breakwater Fish and Lobster Market, or order up a sweet and easy-to-eat lobster roll.

Three historic Brewster sites can all be seen in one location: Drummer Boy Park. Visit the Higgins Farm Windmill, the 3 Harris-Black House, and the Blacksmith shop, each dating to the 18th century. Visit Thursday to Saturday in summer.

six

After making his fortune in Chicago, Albert Crosby returned to his native Brewster to build a stately mansion around his family's homestead on Crosby Lane. Open six select days, May to October.

8

More than 10,000 years ago, glaciers formed the eight kettle ponds now found in Nickerson State Park. The clear, freshwater ponds are great for trout fishing. Among these, Flax Pond is great for swimming and canoeing.

12

Founded by 12 women in 1853, the Brewster Ladies Library began with a collection of 200 books. Today, the library at 1822 Main Street has 50,000 volumes to lend. Open year-round, Tuesday through Saturday.

29

The 29th annual Brewster in Bloom Festival is a celebration of spring's return. Held the first weekend in May, festivities include a band concert (May 1), a juried arts and crafts show, a 5K-run (May 2), and a parade (May 3).

With a private beach, tennis facility, and 90 well-appointed rooms, Ocean Edge Resort combines old world luxury with Cape Cod charm. 90 Built in 1912, the building over the years has been a residence, a seminary, and—since 1986—a resort.

The Cape Rep Theatre offers the Cape's only outdoor theater—a 200-seat spot tucked into the serene woods of Nickerson State Park. In summer, the stage hosts children's productions by day and general theater at night. 200

300

As many as 300 children descend on Brewster Day Camp every summer to take part in a variety of activities from art, boating, and swimming to exploring the the wilderness.

400

Get back to nature—by visiting Nickerson State Park. The site has more than 400 campsites as well as hiking trails and convenient access to the Cape Cod Rail Trail.

716

At 716 acres, Long Pond—the largest freshwater pond on the Cape—is shared between Brewster and Harwich. The beach is accessible off Crowell's Bog Road; a lifeguard is on duty from July 4 to Labor Day.

5,280 FEET

Walk along one of Brewster's seven Cape Cod Bay beaches to see the famous Brewster flats. When the tide recedes, more than a mile (5,280 feet) of sandy beach is revealed, as well as lots of tidal pools and sandbars.

B.C./A.D./INFINITY

What did the Cape look like millennia ago? What will it look like centuries from today? Learn about the peninsula's past and future at the Cape Cod Museum of Natural History.