

2,300

A unique 'theatre in the round,' The Cape Cod Melody Tent has 2,300 seats, none more than 50 feet from the stage.

The 2015 schedule includes Mary Chapin Carpenter, The Beach Boys, and Diana Krall.

The John F. Kennedy Hyannis Museum is a celebration of the life of the 35th President of the United States—and his love for the Cape.

Videos, photos, and artifacts offer a glimpse into JFK's time in Hyannis between 1934 and 1963. Open June through November.

FIVE

One bonus feature of the JFK Hyannis Museum is the Cape Cod Baseball League Hall of Fame exhibit. View memorabilia of the newly inducted Class of 2014, including #5 Sam Fuld, a current Major Leaguer and former Hyannis Met.

250,000

Crunch this number: more than 250,000 visitors tour the Cape Cod Potato Chips Factory every year. Bonus: the self-guided tours are free. Visit Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

30

The 30th annual Citizen's Bank Pops by the Sea Concert will be held on the Hyannis Village Green Sunday, August 9. It's a classic!

2.5

Enjoy Cape Cod serenity along 2-1/2 miles of trails at Mass Audubon's Long Pasture Wildlife Sanctuary. Check out the tidal flats, or simply take in the view of Barnstable Harbor flanked by the dunes of Sandy Neck Beach.

4,700

Described as a living museum, Sandy Neck Beach Park consists of 4,700 acres of dunes, maritime forest, and marshland. Off-road vehicles are allowed on the beach and seasonal permits are available.

.371

Jason Varitek played two summers for the Hyannis Mets (now called the Harbor Hawks). In 1993, the switch-hitting slugger batted .371 and was named league MVP. The Hawks' 2015 home opener is Friday, June 12.

5, 3, TBD

Enjoy a five-course meal while scenic Cape Cod unfolds before your eyes aboard the Cape Cod Central Railroad's dinner train. The three-hour tour is offered on select days, May through October.

93

The Barnstable Comedy Club is a bit of a misnomer; the club is actually a community theater company—and it's been in operation for 93 years. The 2015 schedule includes "The Kitchen Witches" and "Ravenscroft."

45

Toad Hall, owned and operated at the Simmons Homestead Inn is a unique local space showcasing 45 Triumphs, Jaguars, and other sport cars. The vehicles are all restored, in running condition—and red!

20

From its stout Hyannis headquarters, Cape Cod Beer will release 20 brews in 2015. Staples include Cape Cod Beach Blonde, and limited release concoctions include Mint Chocolate Porter. Tours are held Monday through Saturday at 11 a.m.

BAKER'S DOZEN + 1

The Centerville Pie Company serves 14 dessert pies—apple, pecan, and Cape Cod Crunch, to name a few—along with 10 savory pies. The Route 28 eatery also serves breakfast and lunch, Wednesday through Saturday.

26, 16

Four Seas Ice Cream in Centerville serves 26 different flavors, including cantaloupe, black raspberry, and frozen pudding. This sweet spot also offers 16 great toppings, from hot fudge to mocha java.

11

Barnstable House, a.k.a. "The House of 11 Ghosts," is just one of the stops on Barnstable Village's Ghost Hunters Tour. Offered April to November the tours teach amateur ghost hunters how to "investigate" the paranormal.
