

3 ARTISTS

Founded by artist Harry Holl, Scargo Pottery & Art Gallery is now run by two of Holl's daughters, Kim and Tina, and his one-time apprentice, Meden Parker.

Meet the artists and choose from decorative pots, mugs, and more!

$1

Seek out endless treasures at Dick and Ellie's 2.0 Flea Market in South Dennis for just a dollar. The market features 13 acres of vendor tables displaying goods old and new. Open Memorial Day to Labor Day, Thursday to Sunday.

3 wines

Food, wine, music and art come together in perfect harmony at the Harvest Gallery Wine Bar in Dennis Village. Order a wine flight to try three, 2-ounce glasses of different varietals.

3.2

Gear up for the Dennis Chamber's 10th annual Labor Day 5K on Sunday, September 6. The 3.2-mile run (and walk) steps off from Johnny Kelley Park and finishes at Carleton Hall.

SIX

Mayflower Beach is a beautiful spot that is as family-friendly as they come, with lifeguards, restrooms, and concessions. Bring a shovel on August 16 for the annual sandcastle contest! Prizes awarded in six categories.

7

The Cape Cod Museum of Art exhibits unique displays in seven galleries as well as a lovely sculpture garden. Open year-round, Tuesday through Sunday.

22

Consisting of 22 miles of bike and walking trails along a former railroad bed, the Cape Cod Rail Trail begins in Dennis and ends in Wellfleet. Free parking is available at the trailhead off Route 134 in South Dennis.

27

Sweetly situated at the corner of Routes 28 and 134, Kream 'N' Kone is an institution. Enjoy one of 27 flavors of soft-serve ice cream, or a heaping pile of fried clams—or both! Open mid-February through October.

30

Climb to the top of Scargo Tower to take in the local scenery from a 30-foot perch. Built in 1901, this stone structure stands atop the tallest hill in the Mid-Cape—adjacent to Scargo Lake. Open from sunrise to sunset.

36, 8

School days are easier to swallow at the Sundae School in Dennisport because the ice cream shop offers 36 different flavors and eight delicious toppings. Top off your dish with whipped cream and a cherry. Open seasonally.

50 sizes

The original Cape Cod Screwball bracelet is made at Eden Hand Arts. The bracelet's simple, elegant style is timeless, and—offered in 50 sizes, shaped in 1/8-inch increments—it's made to fit perfectly.

279

Once home to the town's first minister and its namesake, the 1736 Josiah Dennis Manse Museum has artifacts from Dennis's early days. The 279-year-old saltbox is open Tuesdays and Thursdays in summer.

400+

More than 400 American flags will be placed at Johnny Kelley Park as part of a Field of Honor tribute for Veterans Day. The Cape Cod AmVets sponsor this event, now in its third year.

500 FEET

Ready to fly? Patrons of the uplifting Dennis Parasail & Jet Ski are used to enjoying a nice breeze—high above Cape Cod Bay. Take a speedy cruise to get out on the water; then soar aloft up to 500 feet in the air.

6,400

Cape Cinema has been entertaining movie-goers since 1930. The theater screens a variety of films, but the real showstopper is the ethereal, 6,400-square-foot mural painted on the ceiling by artist Rockwell Kent.
