

3

What goes better with baseball and burgers than . . . donuts? Fans of the Y-D Red Sox can enjoy three kinds of hamburgers served on donuts: the Sinker, the Boston Screamer, and the Hurler—the last served on a jelly donut.

3.5

Great Marsh Kayak Tour offers a 3.5-hour paddle along Parker's River. Perfect for beginners and families, this leisurely tour makes for an enjoyable outing as the river winds through picturesque West Yarmouth.

FIVE

There are five golf courses in Yarmouth: Bass River Golf Club, Bayberry Hills Golf Course, the Golf Club at Yarmouthport, Blue Rock Golf Course, and Cummaquid Golf Club. Need we say more? FORE!

6

In 1936, the Winslow Crocker house was moved six miles down Old King's Highway from West Barnstable to its present location in Yarmouth. The home is open on select Saturdays, from June to mid-October.

$15

Seagull Beach, the largest in Yarmouth, has a bathhouse and concession stand. To park for the day though, non-residents must shell out $15, or buy weekly ($70) or seasonal ($175) passes.

16

The star of the Werner Schmidt Observatory behind Dennis-Yarmouth High School is a 16-inch telescope—and the celestial bodies seen through it. Free viewing sessions on select Saturdays through June.

30

In business since 2005, Cape Cod Creamery on Route 28 in South Yarmouth sells 30 flavors of homemade ice cream including Barnstable Bananas Foster, Woods Hole Walnut, and Cummaquid Coconut.

36

Pirate's Cove Adventure Golf offers not one, but two 18-hole mini-golf courses. Signature holes at this family friendly favorite in South Yarmouth include bridges, a waterfall, and—ARRRGH!—pirates galore!

Yarmouth's annual Summer Celebration Kickoff is held from June 27 to July 3. Last year's festivities featured a fishing derby, a beach run, a barbecue, baseball, fireworks, and giant sand sculptures sited at 42 spots around town.

50

The Cape Cod Inflatable Park is a child's dream. Open from April through mid-October, the park features about 50 different inflatable attractions—there's a dragon, fire truck, and more—plus a nine-hole mini golf course and arcade.

100

The Antiques Center of Yarmouth is chock full of treasures—from vintage jewelry to glassware, antique furniture to tchotchkes—just waiting to be found. Some 100 dealers participate in this year round market.

125

Held on Columbus Day weekend, the Yarmouth Seaside Festival includes music, a parade, a pie-eating contest, and 125 different crafters and artisans. Events held near the Laurence MacArthur Elementary School.

Established in 1696, The Old Yarmouth Inn turns a robust 319 in 2015. The inn no longer offers lodging to weary stagecoach travelers, but continues its three-centuries-long tradition of providing delicious meals in a cozy atmosphere.

501(C)3

With the motto "All the arts for all of us," the non-profit Cultural Center of Cape Cod offers exhibits and educational programs. The first juried exhibit of 2015—"Beauty in the Beast"—opens in January.

2,985.75

It might be 2,985.75 miles from Yarmouth to Dublin, but Keltic Kitchen offers a little piece of Ireland on Route 28. Visitors can nosh on a traditional Irish breakfast, corned beef, or one of six eggs benedict options.